

Grandma Millie's Church Windows

What You'll Need:

- 1 stick butter
- 12 oz semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 2 cups small colored marshmallows
- 1-2 cup peanuts (you can use any nut you may like better, or leave them out entirely)
- Coconut flakes

Recipe Notes:

A note on marshmallows: you can use small plain white marshmallows or any of the fun flavored ones!

What You'll Do:

1. Place your chocolate chips and butter in a microwave safe bowl. No microwave? Place a heat-proof bowl over a pan of boiling water (remove from heat after bringing to a boil) and let the butter and chocolate melt together. Otherwise, microwave for 2 mins or so.
2. Stir your chocolate and butter together. Set aside to cool.
3. Get your coconut, marshmallows, and nuts (if using) ready.
4. Once your chocolate is cooled a bit, add your marshmallows and nuts.
5. Stir until evenly mixed and coated.
6. Place a piece of parchment down on your surface.
7. Add your half of your chocolate mix in a log form on to the parchment.
8. Cover the top of your log with coconut. You could, if you wanted, lay coconut flakes on the parchment paper before adding chocolate here.
9. Roll your log in parchment and form into into a fairly even log shape.
10. Repeat this process with the other half of your chocolate mixture.
11. Place your logs into the freezer and freeze until firm. Likely about 30 minutes.
12. Grab your frozen log and a knife. Slice your log, at an angle, in about half inch pieces.
13. This is the best moment! You get to reveal the beauty you have created! The marshmallows and nuts create a colorful "church window" pattern giving you stained glass gorgeousness.
14. Amen and enjoy!
